Why It's Important for You To Be a Member

Because it means we're not working in a vacuum. We need members to establish the BGC as a credible voice in the community, and to leverage all of the other support we receive from outside sources. Individuals and families join each year because they feel there is a value to the BGC pushing for change or offering a program no one else does. When you become a member of the BGC, you make a personal investment in the future of your neighborhood.
